Professional Designations

Justin M. Arnold holds the professional designations of Certified Financial Planner ("CFP®"). CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP®, and federally registered CFP® are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board"). A CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Certificant is a professional who is committed to competent and ethical behavior when providing financial planning advice. To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP® Board has determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services and attain a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university).
- Examination – Pass the CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances.
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience.
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP® Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct.

For additional information about these credentials, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.
